

Membership and Dues

Revised: 7/19/2011

Senior Member	A single male or female, twenty-one years of age or over, or a married male or female, eighteen years of age or over, when elected to membership, shall have full club privileges and voting rights. Dues are $840 per calendar year and may be paid monthly, annually, or semi-annually. Initiation fee is $1,680 (as of 1/1/2009 two times the annual dues), of which must be fully paid before activation of membership.
Junior Member	An unmarried male or female, at least twelve years of age and under twenty-one years of age, who shall have all club privileges, except voting rights. Dues are $75 per year, which may be paid monthly at $6.25. There is no initiation fee.
Senior Non-voting	This membership will be available to any persons, male or female, twenty-one to thirty and otherwise qualified for membership who shall have all club privileges except voting rights and shall have no privileges as to any slip rental, there is no initiation fee. This membership shall be available to such member for a period of two years; at that time you may apply for a senior membership in which your initiation fee will be due in full. Dues are the same as Senior Membership
Out of Town Member	An active senior member in good standing provided his established out of town residence is over fifty (50) miles from the club and does not have or establish summer residence within such fifty miles area; provided however, that a senior membership must be held for a period of one (1) year prior to applying for a change of status to out of town member. Dues shall be one half (½) of the senior dues, with no monthly levy.
Associate Member	Any male or female otherwise qualified for senior membership. At the time of application for membership in the club and for a period of two (2) years following joining the Biloxi Yacht Club, must be a member in good standing of a Gulf Yachting Association Club, dues will be the same as a senior member and may be paid annually, semi- annually or monthly. Initiation fee will be one-half (½) of senior membership, of which 20% must be paid down and the balance paid over a period of one year.
Military Member	A male or female member, married or single, who is an active member of the United States military, when elected to membership, will have full non-voting Club membership privileges (to include family members). Membership is limited to three years. An initiation fee of $400.00 must be paid prior to activation of membership. Dues are equal to the amount provided for Senior Members. Member must maintain active military status and provide verification of such annually. At the end of the three year period, or if the member loses active military status, membership will terminate. The member may apply prior to the expiration of the three year period for Senior Membership with an initiation fee (minus the initial $400.00) in the amount provided for Senior Membership at the time member was accepted by the Board of Directors as a Military Member.
